

Trinidad and Tobago Humanist Association

TT Humanist Launch • Invitation • Programme

We have reached a stage where the problems of our society seem overwhelming, where those of us who are concerned about our country may think that all these problems are too big to tackle, that we are powerless, and that the persons in power are incompetent or uncaring or both.

So what do we do?

We do not have all the answers but we do have some ideas that we would like to introduce you to and, through discussion, get your opinions.

Please join us for the launch of:

The Trinidad and Tobago Humanist Association

Republic Day, Saturday, 24 September 2005 at 10.30 am
National Library and Information System Authority (NALIS)
Corner of Hart and Abercromby Streets, Port of Spain.

The presentations will run as follows:

1. Introduction	Geoffrey Frankson	"The TT Humanists"
2. Address	Kevin Baldeosingh	"The Importance of Humanism"
3. Topic Presentation	Nicola Cross	"Crime Prevention - Pushing the Envelope"
4. Topic Presentation	Cedriann Martin	"The Problem with Abstinence Only"
5. Topic Presentation	Shane Collens	"The Virtues of Secularism"
6. Closing	Philip Fortune	"Join Us"

Each of the three topic presentations will last ten minutes and will be followed by a fifteen minute discussion. The entire programme will run for about 95 minutes. Text of the presentations will be available at our web site (address below) and to the Media in hard and soft copy.

RSVP: We would really appreciate your response. Please call Veronica Collens on 625-0312
